

FOUND TRACE OF REPUBLICAN

REPUBLICAN ENROLLMENT IN THE 20TH ALBANY DISTRICT.

County Commissioners Investigate Verance's Charges, but Fail to Find Anything to Justify Them—An Intruder in the Plaza Club Room, So Mr. Verance's Name.

The investigation by the members of the Republican County Committee of the Twenty-ninth Assembly district into the charges of James Verance that one-third of the Republican enrollment in that district is fraudulent, was continued last night at the Twenty-ninth District Republican Club, 808 Lexington avenue.

The investigation was made on a charge produced by the Plaza Republican Club by invitations addressed to enrolled members who were returned because the men addressed could not be found.

The work last night covered twelve election district associations, and produced no evidence of fraud. In many cases the invitations were wrongly addressed, in a great many more the men to whom they were addressed were out of the city and their houses closed. Others, not half of those to be accounted for, had moved from the election district since the regular purging of the rolls in June. Among the invitations returned was one sent to Charles H. Strong, the City Clerk, who is a Republican. It was informed "not found," although he resides in the district. Nearly one-half of those investigated were of this character.

Only one election district Chairman refused to produce his roll, taking the ground that, under the constitution of the County Committee, the investigation has no right to demand its production. There were forty invitations returned, several of them from his district. Several other "not found" who were summoned did not appear, but it is not probable that they will do so to-morrow night. Among them was Dr. M. J. Jackson, candidate for Governor at the next election, whose district was not investigated. He made the poorest showing with seventy returned invitations.

John S. Tabbets, Secretary of the Plaza Republican Club, said that it was discovered last night that some of the men who were invited during the day and tampered with the evidence. The returned invitations were found in great disorder, and some of them were abstracted from a bundle representing returns from one election district, and fifteen without addresses had been taken from the bundle. Tabbets laid all this at the door of an unknown man, who, under the guise of a workman and saying he had orders from Mr. Tabbets, gained entrance to the club rooms early yesterday morning on the plea of repairing some furniture.

PRIMARY ON A DOORSTEP.

Congressman McKewen of Jersey City at Odds with the Republican Organization.

Congressman Thomas McKewen, who is at odds with the Republican leaders of Hudson county, N. J., held a primary on a doorstep in Jersey City last night in an effort to prevent being turned down, but as the delegates of Freeholder Frederick Stur, who held an opposition primary, also claim a victory, there will be two sets of delegates, and as the Stur crowd is backed by the machine, the congressmen will be in all probability ignored.

Primaries were held throughout the county last night for the election of delegates to the General Committee. Congressman McKewen and Freeholder Stur were rivals for the leadership in the Twenty-ninth Assembly district, they found it impossible to get together, and the Stur faction had moved to Hudson county, where they were organized. It was then that Congressman McKewen organized the primary on the doorstep, the ballots being cast in a hall in the rear of his house.

The Stur faction did likewise at their polling place, the rear of a saloon. The protest which McKewen made against the Stur primary was the probable turning down of Congressman McKewen will further widen the breach between him and the Republican leaders.

BROOKLYN'S ALIENED RETURNS.

District Attorney Backus Says He Has a Difficult Task to Perform.

District Attorney Backus of Brooklyn is to investigate the charge that the returns in some of the election districts of the Tenth Assembly district were altered after leaving the hands of the local inspectors of election. His attention was directed to this matter yesterday by former Justice Clement, who was counsel for Samuel M. Hubbard in the proceedings to compel the County Board of Canvassers to canvass the certified returns which elected Mr. Hubbard over John E. Turner.

"I think," said Mr. Backus, "that we have not much to show in this matter. It is a matter of fact, and I have had a talk with Justice Smith, and he says there is nothing in the evidence taken by him to show that any particular person is being implicated in the scheme. Therefore I am expected to do something, but I do not think I can do it."

Arranging the Machinery of the Greater New York.

Under the provisions of the charter, which require it, the Mayors of New York, Brooklyn, and Long Island City are to meet on Jan. 1, 1898, at the Richmond County Court of Supervisors and County Judge Moore of Queens county next Tuesday afternoon in Mayor Strong's office in the City Hall to apportion the employees and property of the city and county departments which will come under one city administration. It was decided that the Corporation Councils or the attorneys of the several municipalities should be present, and that a paper in which the work of apportionment should be done, and an adjournment was taken to Dec. 10, when it is expected the opinions will be ready.

Generators to Hold a Conference.

The Assembly district leaders who were appointed during the recent Mayoralty campaign to look after the interests of Henry George and the Democracy of Thomas Jefferson throughout the Greater New York have been invited to call the district organizations together and elect delegates to a conference to be held at the May 1st, 1898, at the Hotel Hamilton. The object of the conference is to discuss plans for a permanent organization. The outcome of the conference will be to elect a permanent organization which will be the only one to be elected, and it is their purpose next to elect a permanent organization to Congress from the metropolis.

REPUBLICAN WAR IN DUTCHES.

The Mutual Insurance Company Made an Issue of the National Fight.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Dec. 1.—The Dutchess County Mutual Insurance Company yesterday made an issue in the war so bitterly waged in Dutchess county between the Hunter and Wall wings of the Republican party. At the last election an attempt was made to beat County Treasurer Haubenstiel, a Hunter man, by attacking his credit, but the voters resented the trick by pulling up a plurality of nearly 4,000 for Haubenstiel. To-day President Lewis H. Vall of the Dutchess Mutual Insurance Company, leader of the Wall wing, addressed a letter to Superintendent of Insurance Payn, aimed at Deputy Superintendent Hunter. The letter read:

"For some time certain parties have industriously circulated false and malicious reports concerning the financial standing of the Dutchess County Mutual Insurance Company. I regret to say further that threats regarding official action toward this company, involving its standing and calculated to do harm to its business, have emanated from one or more persons connected with the Insurance Department of the State of New York, coupling these threats with the false charge that the company was in financial straits. It is my duty to state that the company is in the best of health, and that the reports are entirely unfounded. In my opinion, the interests of the company and the public require that the company be called to the fact, and at the same time that the department be relieved of its most convenient opportunity to make such charges, which are entirely unfounded, and which are calculated to do harm to the company and the public. Every facility for such examination will be furnished by the company and its officers."

Mr. Hunter has repeatedly denied in interviews that his political battle was being waged against the company, and that he was not interested in the company. He was seen by a reporter to-night Mr. Vall. The company welcomes any investigation. We are able to show you the largest net surplus of any company in the State. We are in a flourishing condition. Let examination come on as soon as they please. There is no harm in it. The letter, but if there is I guess it is all right."

BROOKFIELD INCINED TO PEACE.

President Quinn's Proposal May Unify Republicans in the County.

William Brookfield, who has opposed the present Republican organization since he was defeated for reelection as President of the County Committee in 1895, and who has been defeated in denouncing it as fraudulent, and in his demands for a new Republican organization in the county, is disposed to listen to the pacificatory propositions of President Quinn looking to a harmonious union of all Republicans. He said yesterday:

"The machine is really willing to abandon its present position and to accept an entirely new enrollment under the direction of a committee composed of disinterested men, of such character and standing as will inspire confidence in the work when completed, it seems to me not impossible to secure party harmony. The machine is sure to be formed, and the machine gives positive evidence of its sincere desire to be reformed. The Executive Committee of the county, the faction will meet at Lyric Hall to-morrow night for the purpose of organizing a new organization, and a union with other Republicans who have recently expressed a desire for separate organization. It was said last night that Mr. Brookfield may suggest a postponement of action to await the development of Mr. Quinn's plan for reorganization."

MULBERRY STREET'S BANKS.

More of Them Than Saloons, and All with Big Window Displays of Wealth.

If financial centers were judged by the number of banks, a man might be pardoned for supposing that Mulberry street was bigger than Wall street. In six blocks in Mulberry street there are thirty banks. That is an average of five banks to the block, and these six blocks are in the heart of the city.

There are more banks in Mulberry street than there are saloons. In these same six blocks there are thirty banks, and it is pretty safe to say that Mulberry street banks get more of the money of the laboring man than the saloons. Mulberry street is probably the only place in the country where the banking business and the saloon business go hand in hand, too.

Of the fourteen saloons in these six blocks only one is a saloon. The others are banks. The saloon occupies one-half of the store and the bank the other half. In the saloon side of the building there is a bar, and on the other side there is a bank. The bank side of the building is a bank, and the saloon side is a saloon. The bank side of the building is a bank, and the saloon side is a saloon. The bank side of the building is a bank, and the saloon side is a saloon.

Importations of Cattle from Mexico.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Dec. 1.—There is a big revival in the importation of Mexican cattle into this country, and many American buyers are doing a heavy business in that line. It is estimated that the total number of cattle imported during the next two months. The high prices in this country and the low prices in Mexico make the business very profitable.
